

Mr. Miller grew up on a small farm in Rush NY, and attended Rush-Henrietta where he graduated in 1994 in the top 3% of his class. While he was in high school he was awarded MVP honors in cross-country, indoor track, and outdoor track as well as being selected by the faculty as the exceptional senior of the graduating class. Mr. Miller was also a very active 4-H member, with the highlight of receiving Reserve Champion public speaker in the country at the Eastern National 4-H Horse Contest. Upon graduation, Mr. Miller attended SUNY Geneseo to study Chemistry and Education. He received his Bachelors and Masters degree from Geneseo. Mr. Miller started teaching at Wayland-Cohocton in the fall of 1998. Besides his classroom activities in the Science Department, Mr. Miller was actively involved in the Drama Club. In 2010 he celebrated the birth of his first child, Anakin. Over the summer he is the resident Sound Designer at Bristol Valley Theater, a summerstock theater in Naples NY. He also sits on the NYS 4-H Horse advisory council as the Communication chair, a responsibility that includes coaching the speaking team that represents NYS at the National contest.
