

Cyber Bullying

A new twist to age-old problem!

Become more informed of the dangers and legal implications of using the Internet and other electronic devices

Monday, February 6, 2012

Livonia Sr. High School Auditorium

7:00 pm

Presenters include:

Mike Kozak who will focus on the Internet and cell phone safety and security including identity theft, sexual predators, and the dangers of social networking sites.

Liz Griswold, presenting on the harmful effects of Cyber Bullying and what parents can do to prevent and deal with the trauma of Cyber Bullying.

Deputy Phyllis Applin, Livingston County Sheriff's Department, will present on the legal implications of sexting.

Deputy Josh Monster, Livonia's School Resource Officer will specifically address the policies and practices regarding Cyber Bullying at Livonia High School.

Sponsored by the Livonia School Counselors